Nominations for 2016 WA Health Excellence Awards open

13 June 2016

WA Primary Health Alliance (WAPHA) is proud to sponsor the 2016 WA Health Excellence Awards.

WAPHA is sponsoring the Overcoming Inequities category which recognises projects that work to overcome inequities in access to healthcare due to distance, socioeconomic status, disability or other constraints.

The Overcoming Inequities category award aims to raise awareness in difficulties that some people face in accessing health care, consulting with marginalised groups and individuals and developing solutions.

Other categories for the 2016 WA Health Excellence Awards include:

- Improving service delivery
- Managing resources effectively and efficiently
- Achieving better health outcomes for Aboriginal people
- Developing sustainable solutions for out-of-hospital healthcare
- Innovative solutions for improving safety and quality
- Promoting healthy habits and preventing illness and injury

For more information or to nominate for the awards visit the Department of Health website.

Nominations close at 5pm, 15 July 2016.
