GP urgent care skills update – Workshops

Dates:	Saturday 31 August 2019 Joondalup Resort, Connolly Saturday 12 October 2019 Trinity on Hampden, Crawley Saturday 30 November 2019 Bunbury - Venue TBC
Cost:	Free
Time:	Registration: 8.00 am Workshop: 8.30 am – 4.15 pm
QI&CPD:	40 Category 1 points

You are invited to attend a free, comprehensive, one-day workshop covering some of the common presentations likely to be managed in a GP urgent care appointment. This workshop is exclusive for GPs from general practices participating in the GP Urgent Care Network Pilot.

Content will cover clinical skills and provide an opportunity for feedback and review.

Led by RACGP WA, the program is developed and delivered by experienced GP medical educators alongside wound specialists, ENTs, emergency department physicians, and sports physicians. Procedural and simulation equipment will be an integral part of the workshop where participants will work in small groups for interactive learning.

To register, complete the registration form and return to wa.events@racgp.org.au

Curriculum overview

The presentations covered in the workshop include:

1. Practice assessment and management of patients in the general practice urgent care setting
2. Assessment and management of wounds, including burns
3. Assessment and management of the ear, nose and eye
4. Assessment and management of musculoskeletal cases

Please note, as there are limited places available at each session so please reserve your space early.

For more information, please contact Sharon Safstrom from RACGP WA on wa.events@racgp.org.au or call 08 9489 9555.
